Vintage sardines – the heart of our expertise

Since 2004, every summer we have carefully packed sardines of exceptional quality. Preserved fresh in their tins, they retain their flavour and nutrients, offering an authentic and delicious product. Like a fine wine, each vintage improves with time. On tasting, the sardines reveal a tender, flavourful texture; in the oil, a candied core develops, imperceptible on the palate. These qualities are complemented by valuable nutritional benefits, including an abundance of omega-3 fatty acids, vitamin D and calcium.
